

Good Afternoon,

If you are receiving this email you are currently on the waitlist for the 2023 NCVF Championships.

We are thrilled to see growth in not only our sport as a whole, but in the interest and organization among collegiate clubs. Unfortunately, this expanded interest has put serious stress on our tournament capacity. In 2022 we accepted all 489 registered teams to the NCVF Championships. In 2023 we expanded to 504 teams (the most we could reasonably fit into our current facilities) in anticipation of continued growth, but we had over 550 teams complete registration, leaving significant waitlists for both the men and women.

What does this mean for teams on the waitlist?

- You can check your team's status and waitlist position here. If teams drop, we will fill their spot with the first team on the waitlist that is eligible for that division (we have teams in IAAA waiting to move to D-II and D-III so we expect that waitlist teams will be accepted in the order they appear).

What are your odds of getting into the tournament?

- We have already accepted several teams off the waitlist this year and each year we expect to have some teams drop opening additional spots. That being said, WE CANNOT GUARANTEE THAT ANY WAITLIST TEAMS WILL BE ACCEPTED INTO THE TOURNAMENT. If and when teams will drop from the tournament is entirely outside of our control, so the best we can do is keep you updated as soon as we hear from teams (again, your status/waitlist position will be updated here but we will also reach out if you are accepted to the tournament).

Can we still come to the tournament?

- Yes, you are welcome to attend. I know of at least one instance where a waitlist team was accepted to the tournament around midnight the night before the tournament when a team did not show up, but this is certainly the exception and not something that you can count on.

We will be refunded?

- Your full entry fee and processing fee will be refunded following the tournament if you are ultimately not accepted. You can request a withdrawal and refund at any time prior to that if you choose.

What about our hotels?

- Each hotel has a different cancellation policy/date, but all rooms booked through TTS should still be within the cancellation window with no additional fees due. Please reach out directly to TTS if you need to cancel your hotel rooms.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions.
